SHORT ARTISTIC CURRICULUM

Marco Mandurrino was born in Pinerolo in 1984. At the Civic Music School of his city he undertakes, still young, the studies of Piano and Composition, then he continues the latter under the guidance of Maestro Gianni Possio at Conservatory “G. Verdi” in Turin. At the same time, he also dedicated to the study and practice of Orchestral Conduction.

His compositions range from Chamber Music to the Orchestral one, passing through the Ballet, Choral Music and Opera: it has already to his credit, in fact, an opera for soloists, orchestra, chorus and walk-on, and whose text has seen the supervision of the Italian librettist Marco Ravasini. He is highly engaged in concerts, with a large number of planned executions, almost always under the direction of his baton.

For the Turin Conservatory he has also performed as a pianist, tenor of the Chamber Choir directed by Dario Tabbia and had the honor to participate several times both as author and conductor at prestigious events such as the “XX Fiera Internazionale del Libro” (for the opening concert in presence of a representative of the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research - MIUR), the inauguration of the Academic Year 2007/08 in Turin (as director and co-author of a ballet in collaboration with the National Academy of Dance in Rome - AND) and “Contemporary Art Torino Piemonte”.

His works have been performed, as well as in the agenda of the Musical Evenings of Conservatory, for Concerts in St. Pelagia, Orpheus Auditorium of Turin, for the Turin Artists Club, Polincontri Classica and for Aurore Musicali, thanks to the collaboration of important artists and musical formations including pianists Angiola Rocca and Eliana Grasso, violinists Marta Tortia, Cecilia Ziano and Carlo Bettarini (already among the first violins in RAI), the soprano Rossella Giacchero, violist Maurizio Redegoso Kharitian, cellist Eduardo Dell’Oglio and the Ensemble Orchestrale Giovanile of Turin.

Recently he conducted the Magister Harmoniae Orchestra and the pianist Eliana Grasso in the Concert for piano and orchestra No.9 K.271 by W.A. Mozart, for a funding event in favor of the Williams Syndrome Italian Association - AISW. He graduated in Physics at the University of Turin and in Engineering Physics (109/110) at the Polytechnic University of the same city, where he also received a Ph.D. in Electronic Devices in 2017.

Besides the composition and the career as concertist – which already accounts for the conduction and coordination of first performances, of him and contemporary authors – in the past he has also been active in teaching, working with music schools in Piedmont.

In October 2010, he also conducted at the Theatre of Poirino the first on-stage representation of his opera Il Frutto Rapito, “curious and intriguing” (Attilio Piovano, La Stampa, Turin), directed by Gianluigi Pizzetti and with the scenic help of Marco Viecca. One of his last performances, in January 2016, involved the Fanfare of the Brigata Alpina “Taurinense” playing for the first time his new score “Anime”, expressly composed to commemorate the fallen of the Great War at Turin Polincontri Classica season. For the same organizer, he received the commission to write the music to accompany the first poetry competition awards “Téchne e Poësis” in June 2016.
